Dear parents and carers

Your young person will be studying An Inspector Calls by J.B. Priestley in September and will sit an exam on this text as part of their GCSE English Literature at the end of Year 11.

To support your young person's learning it is important that they have access to their own copy of the text to annotate and use for independent study. I am therefore requesting that each student buys their own copy of the play.

The text can be bought in most bookshops or online. Please make sure your young person has their own copy when they return to school for the start of the new academic year in September. If possible, please purchase the Penguin Modern Classics edition as this is the text that will be used in class. An image of the front cover of this edition can be found by clicking here.

Any pupils who are on Free School Meals will be provided with a free copy of the text.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions; cwood@carringtonschool.org

Best wishes
